CHART SYNTHESIS

The dilemma that all astrological students face, after having learnt the meaning of the planets, signs, houses & aspects, and having begun to develop an ability to produce a birth chart reading or a character analysis – is how to correctly interpret the many parts of the horoscope to produce a living portrait of the client.

Experience shows that if the astrologer becomes over-analytical with technical jargon, they become increasingly fatalistic. The purpose of astrology is not to encourage confusion, fragmentation, mental tension & anxiety about the future. It is very easy to get lost in all kinds of information because there is something very seductive about astrology that just pulls you in.

The effectiveness of the astrologer-student is to keep focussed upon the life purpose of the horoscope one is looking at and making the interpretation about. In this sense, the awareness level of the astrologer-student matters more than the kind of astrology or technique brought used. Astrology is a lens – and if you are polishing that lens, it will give you a sharper focus. In so many ways, the Astrologer matters more than the kind of Astrology. The consciousness that pervades all your astrological work is ultimately what has an effect not just mere “facts” or words.

This Online Training is assisting you to unfold intuitive sensitivities to read the “set of instructions” that the horoscope can reveal.

Yet an intuitive grasp of the whole chart can only develop over time, and from a great deal of experience with lots of charts & lots of people – and no matter how many methods of measurement you use, this intuitive awareness of the whole chart & person can only come from time and personal experience. This is why every Lesson will include several clear horoscope examples.

PRACTICAL

As your personal Guide & Mentor on this Online Training, I bring the practical experience of more than 30 years of daily work with Chart Synthesis, and linking the horoscope patterns to each person’s reality.

Every Lesson contains between 20-30 pages of material to work with, including exercises and horoscope examples to illustrate the principles involved. This material is sent to you via email, on a monthly basis.

After the first 2 Lessons have been received, it will be time for your first 1-Hour Tutorial via Skype – which is recorded & sent to you as a voice mail to download onto your computer. There are 5 Tutorials spread over the 12 Online Lessons, and these are designed to assist you in your growing technique of Chart Synthesis. The focus of these Tutorials is upon understanding the Lessons and applying the principles involved. Students can have their 1-Hour Tutorials after (1). Lessons 1-2; (2). Lessons 3-4; (3). 5-6; (4). Lessons 7-9 & (5). Lessons 10-12. Tutor & student find the appropriate time & date to do each of the 5 Tutorials.
